Men's Doubles – Bronze Medal Match – No. 3 Fritz/Paul (USA) v Machac/Pavlascek (CZE)	Page 6
Women's Singles – Gold Medal Match – No. 6 Zheng Qinwen (CHN) v No. 13 Donna Vekic (CRO)	Page 10
Men's Singles – Bronze Medal Match – No. 11 Lorenzo Musetti (ITA) v No. 13 Felix Auger-Aliassime (CAN)	Page 13

On court today...

- Zheng Qinwen takes on Donna Vekic in the women's singles gold medal match this afternoon, with the winner poised to create history for their nation, becoming the first player to win a singles gold medal at the Olympic Tennis Event for either China, P.R. or Croatia. The pair have faced off twice before and are tied at 1-1 in their rivalry. Should Zheng win here, she will ensure that China, P.R. tops the medal at the Paris 2024 Olympic Tennis Event – with Wang Xinyu and Zhang Zhizhen having won a silver medal in mixed doubles on Friday, no other nation will be able to win a gold medal and a silver medal.
- USA are guaranteed at least one medal in men's doubles at Paris 2024, with Austin Krajicek and Rajeev Ram facing Australia's Matthew Ebden and John Peers in the gold medal match – but Taylor Fritz and Tommy Paul can add another when they face Tomas Machac and Adam Pavlascek in the bronze medal match. Machac will hope to carry momentum from his gold medal alongside Katerina Siniakova in mixed doubles on Friday into this afternoon's clash. In the final, should either Krajicek/Ram or Ebden/Peers win today's final in straight sets, they will become the first team to win the Olympic men's doubles gold medal without dropping a set since tennis returned to the Games at Seoul 1988.
- The men's singles bronze medal match closes the day's action, with Lorenzo Musetti up against Felix Auger-Aliassime. Musetti is aiming to win Italy's 2nd medal at the Olympic Tennis Event in the same city as the first Italian medal in tennis at the Olympics a century ago: Uberto de Morpurgo's bronze medal in men's singles at Paris 1924. Auger-Aliassime is bidding to win his 2nd medal at these Games, having already won mixed doubles bronze alongside Gabriela Dabrowski on Friday. A win for Auger-Aliassime would also see him win Canada's first singles medal at the Olympic Tennis Event.
