Consent

Otherwise, we may seek your consent to use your personal data, e.g. to send you information about the ITF’s competitions, development activity and other ITF business, or to share your data with our affiliates for their marketing purposes. At the time that we ask for your consent we will explain the reasons why. You are entitled to refuse consent. However, your refusal to provide consent may mean that we are unable to provide you with the service that you have requested. Even if you refuse consent to receive direct marketing material, the ITF may still contact you specifically in relation to the services that you have requested (e.g. a conference you have registered for).

If you withdraw your consent, we will not continue to process your information for the purpose for which consent was obtained, but this will not impact the validity of any processing undertaken before you withdrew your consent.

6. How we use your personal data to make automated decisions

We may use your personal data for profiling purposes, to provide you with content that may be of more interest to you. However, this will not be used to make automated decisions that have any substantial legal or similar impact on you.

7. Marketing

We will ask you, when you provide us with your personal data, if you are happy for us to contact you by email about products, competitions and services offered by us and our sponsorship partners which we think may be of interest to you. We may also ask to provide your information to third parties so that they can contact you about their products and services. If you do not agree to this, we will not use your personal data for these purposes.

If, at any time, you change your preferences and either do wish to receive such communications or wish us to stop sending you such communications you can let us know by one of the following methods:

- email us at communications@itftennis.com and we'll be happy to contact you to help change your preferences. (As this isn't a secure channel, please don't include any personal details in any emails sent to this address.)
- Click the unsubscribe link on any marketing emails that we send you.

8. Who we share your personal data with

Your personal data may be shared with ITF Limited, registered in the Bahamas. Hosting and storage of your personal data is facilitated by our cloud hosting service provider (Microsoft). All data is stored in the UK or European Union.

You have a number of rights over your personal data processed by us. These include your rights to request:

- Access to your personal data.
- Correction of incomplete, inaccurate or outdated personal data.
- Transmission of personal data to you or to another person or organisation.
- Erasure of personal data.
- Restriction to our processing of your personal data.

The extent of these rights are limited by law and we may not act on part or all of your request(s) where the right(s) are not applicable. If we do not act on your request, we will explain our reasons why.

Please contact us at the email address detailed under the About Us section above, through our Data Protection Officer or EU Representative if you require any further information or wish to make a request to exercise any of your rights under applicable Data Protection laws.

11. Sending your personal data outside the UK and the EEA

We may transfer and your data may be processed outside the United Kingdom (UK) and the European Economic Area (EEA). This includes transfers to support services for our mailing system.

Where we transfer your data outside of the EEA, we will create and maintain appropriate safeguards so that your personal data is subject to the same standards and protections as when we are processing your personal information inside the EEA.

You can contact us for more information about this.

12. How to complain

Please contact us if you are unhappy with the outcome of any of your requests to exercise your rights, or how we handle your personal data. You are also entitled to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office via www.ico.org.uk.

13. Our Privacy Notice available in other formats

We can provide our Privacy Notice large print, Braille and audio upon request.
